

Coach Pete Giangrosso

A Birmingham native, Coach Giangrosso grew up in Alexander City, where he graduated from Benjamin Russell High School. There he played both football and baseball.

Pete continued his education obtaining a History degree from UAB, playing Blazer Baseball all four years. He went on to earn his Master's Degree in Social Science Education, and currently teaches Tenth Grade American History at Mountain Brook High School. Coach Giangrosso is also on the MBHS Football Coaching Staff.

Pete is married to the former Jaime Robinson, and is a proud father of Emily Kate and Tripp.
